8 June 2021

This menu of investment options has been prepared for Vanguard Personal Investor, an investor directed portfolio service operated by Vanguard Investments Australia (ABN 72 072 881 086, AFS Licence 227263) and contains the current list of investment options available to investors through Vanguard Personal Investor. This menu should be read in conjunction with the Vanguard Personal Investor Guide, Parts A & B, the Vanguard Personal Investor Financial Services Guide and the Vanguard Online Terms and Conditions.

This menu is subject to change, and from time to time we may withdraw investment options from the list.

In providing the information in this investment menu, we have not taken into account your objectives, your financial situation or your needs. You should consult your financial advisor as to whether investments made through Vanguard Personal Investor are appropriate for your situation.

Each of the managed funds and ETFs listed in the menu have their own Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), available from the Vanguard website, or by calling 1300 655 101. You should always read the relevant PDS and/or other disclosure documents before making an investment decision.

The inclusion of a managed fund, ETF or security on this Investment Menu does not constitute advice or endorsement of that product or security by Vanguard.

The information about costs for managed funds and ETFs is sourced from the Product Disclosure Statement for each managed fund or ETF available at the date of this menu. Some figures are estimates, and the actual costs incurred may differ from the figures shown. You should read the full fees and costs information in the current PDS and/or other disclosure document.
